

Treasure Hunt/Message in a Bottle

Children's parties are designed around finding messages in. The messages guide them to what to do next/where to go/what to find. Such as – learning to turn; navigate between boats, docks or buoys; locating swans/geese/cormorants; finding the bridge; paddling standing up; sponge fights and so forth. These bottles may also be used for invitations and party favors.

Party Invitations: 7.5" bottles with a cork, includes assorted novelties and a paper invitation. They are designed for mailing however it is recommended that you consult the local Post Office for mailing requirements and costs. $3 ea.

Party Favor Treasure Hunt: The bottles can also be purchased as receptacles for party favors – something small such as a St. Christopher medal, sharks tooth necklace, shell necklaces etc. (we have catalogs full of ideas!) Or they can direct the participants to a location where your own party favor are – usually back on the dock. Each child's name is written on a bottle, and near the end of the party we start dropping them. To have your bottle include a party favor is approximately $15. We give 25% off merchandise purchased for the party at the store/through us. Ask for ideas.

Pirate - Skull and Crossbones invitations in a bottle.

Luau – Tropical invitations with novelties